David Gates 1971 ukesterbrown lesson sheet (1st note sung is F#)

D                      A                      Am                      G
 1. If a picture paints a thousand words, then why can't I paint you,
Gm                      D                      Gm                      A
 The words will never show, the you I come to know.
D                      A                      Am                      G
 If a face could launch a thousand ships, then where am I to go,
Gm                      D                      Gm                      A
 There's no one home but you, you're all that's left me, too.
Bm      F#      D                      Em
 And when my love for nights is running dry,
Am      B7      Em      A
 You come and pour yourself on me.

D                      A                      Am                      G
 2. [: If a man could be at two places at one time I'd be with you,
Gm                      D      Gm                      A
 Tomorrow and today, beside you all the way.
D                      A                      Am                      G
 If the world should stop revolving, spinning slowly down to die,
Gm                      D      Gm                      A
 I'd spend the end with you, and when the world was through :]
Bm      F#      D                      Em
 Then one by one the stars would all go out,
Am      B7      Em A Em A D-Bm -G-Gm -D
 Then you and I would sim-ply fly a...w.....ay.
